A Newsletter of the Dundee Library

July 2019

July Calendar

- July 1st, Monday, 4pm, Book Riot-Amulet Book 2-This graphic novel is a fun and quick read. After blasting through the first book the kids requested to read book 2. Following our reading time we will be sewing our own Miskit stuffy!
- July 2nd, Tuesday, 3pm, Play and Grow- an indoor/outdoor playdate at the library. We have gardening activities and yard games for outdoor play and board/card games, a kitchen playset, or Legos to play inside.
- July 3rd, Wednesday, 3pm- Galaxy Bouncy Balls- Stop in and create a Glow-in-the-Dark bouncy ball that looks like a miniature planet! We'll even sneak in a little chemistry lesson.
- July 4th, Thursday, LIBRARY CLOSED
- July 5th, Friday, 3pm- Sprouts/Family Game Night-This club is for youth and adults and is offered every Friday. Help us tend our garden and share your gardening skills. This group will meet rain or shine!
- July 6th, Saturday, 9am-2pm Dundee Days at the library. Stop by and make a button with our button machine, sign up for summer reading or sign up for a library card. We also hope to have a child car seat check for those who are interested.
- July 8th, Monday, 4pm, Book Riot: Big Nate-In a Class by Himself- A good summer read with graphic novel-like illustrations that break up the text to make reading a breeze! We will check out the audio version for our first meeting and show off our talents that may someday turn into a career. We will do a funny photo booth shoot for this, too!

Summer Concert Series

The Dundee Library is once again sponsoring a delightful variety of musicians in our free Summer Concert series. Bring your folding chairs, blankets, sun hats, bug spray and your party attitude to the Seneca Street Park on Thursday evenings. Concerts begin at 6:30 so get there early to find a good spot, grab a snack, and visit the booths.

We're Getting Crafty!

The August craft is a hanging lantern to use in your yard, on your patio or deck. Using a pint jar, cloth, wire and beads you will make a decorative lantern to be used with your own candle or with a battery run votive candle that will be supplied. Adults and older teens are welcome. Please sign up at the library or call 243-5938 so enough materials can be prepared.

Meet us at the library on Saturday, August 10th at 11 am. A lantern will be on display at the library in mid- July.

Library Building Fund

We sincerely appreciate any donations to the Library Building Fund. You may send a check made out to Dundee Library with the notation Library Building Fund on the memo line. Send it to Dundee Library, 32 Water St, Dundee, NY, 14837.

The Children's Corner

Fifty years ago Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin were the first astronauts to set foot on the moon on July 20, 1969. To celebrate that incredible achievement our summer reading program has an outer space theme. Please let your children take advantage of all the great programs on the calendar. These wild books and others are available at the library this summer:

I Want to be an Astronaut, by Byron Barton; Man on the Moon, by Simon Bartram; Sheep Blast Off, by Nancy Shaw; A Space Story, by Karla Kuskin. Books from the Juvenile Non-fiction area are: Fly Guy Presents: Space, Destination: Space, and Planet Earth, The Moon Book, by Gail Gibbons.

Hot Summer Reading!

Mrs. Everything by Jennifer Weiner, Unsolved by James Patterson, Queen Bee of Sullivan's Island by Dorothea Benton Frank. New Books: Wunderland by Jennifer Cody Epstein, Cemetery Road by Greg Iles, Run Away, by Harlan Coben, The American Agent by Jacqueline Winspear, California Girls by Susan Mallery. Have a Great Summer and a fun Fourth of July!
