August Calendar

- Aug. 1st, Thursday, 10:30am, Story Time-Space Race- After space race themed stories we will have our own space race including problem solving, paper airplanes, astronaut training and moon rock collection!
- Aug. 1st, Thursday, 3pm, Aspiring Chefs-Moon Sand Cake- We had a request for Sand Cake, but we'll make moon sand cake. We will be making our own homemade vanilla pudding.
- Aug. 2nd, 9th, 16th, and 30th, Fridays, 3pm-Sprouts/Family Game Night-This club is for young and old and is offered every Friday. Help us tend our garden and share your gardening skills. We will meet rain or shine! In case of rain we will be having family game night.
- Aug. 5th, 12th, 19th, and 26th, Mondays, 4pm- Book Riot-How to Train Your Dragon- These are great books and the movies made from this series are phenomenal! Enjoy this book including the e-book and audio book. Activities will include make your own shield and sword, design a catapult, make your own helmet, design a dragon, and watch the first movie at the final meeting.
- Aug. 6th and 20th Tuesdays, 3pm-Lego Club- Design your own creation or use our new books filled with Lego building ideas. On the 6th try our moon rover challenge, the 20th bring your own t-shirt to create your own Lego inspired t-shirt.
- Aug. 7th, Wednesday, 3pm- Art Club- Apollo 11 Moon Landing Paintings- Paint your own textured painting of the moon and add an astronaut and an American flag!

Summer Concert Series

A big thank you goes out to those who have attended our three July summer concerts. Our free Summer Concert series continues in August on Thursday nights at 6:30pm at the Seneca Street Park. Please note that our last concert is on a Wednesday. Come and enjoy these musicians:

August: 1st- William Fryburger and Friends

8th-Finger Lakes/Mark Twain Barbershop Chorus

Wednesday, the 14th - Evan Dillon

We would like to thank the following contributors who have helped to sponsor our summer concerts. Please feel free to thank them when you see them or patronize their businesses:

Sign up for our August craft. Make a hanging lantern to use in your yard, on your patio or deck. Using a pint jar, cloth, wire and beads you will make a decorative lantern. Adults and teens are welcome. Please sign up at the library or by calling 243-5938 so enough materials will be ready. Meet us at the library on Saturday, August 10th at 11 am. A lantern is on display.

Library Building Fund

We sincerely appreciate any donations to the Library Building Fund. You may send a check made out to Dundee Library with the notation Library Building Fund on the memo line. Send it to Dundee Library, 32 Water St, Dundee, NY, 14837.

The Children's Corner

Appropriate for the season is a book by Alex Rodriguez entitled Out of the Ballpark.

We have some really cute books about dinosaurs, Tea Rex and Sea Rex, both by Molly Idle. You can also find Here Comes Destructo-saurus!, by Aaron Reynolds and a new book- Dinosaurs Love Cheese by Jackie French.

For young readers there is a brand new series by Poppy Green called The Adventures of Sophie Mouse. Titles include A New Friend, Forget-Me-Not Lake, The Emerald Berries, and more.
